With jot of the ground dition.

When Casy at I Webster stood, subline;
With the pride of honest hearts,
And hill defaunce to the slipe
Of the frequency dark. Of the fire-catere dart.

Let the disamen heled-beneds bank!
The all that they can do,
We may admit their cloud is dork,
And loud their thunders, tee,
But the Union Bellow of Tennessee,
We is ring a truder peal
To set the expectant spirit free,
And stamp the Union seal.
